

Daxton Justin Olsen

November 12, 2003 - December 7, 2018

Daxton Justin Olsen, 15, of Logan, Utah passed away peacefully surrounded by family on Friday, December 7th after a brief illness. Dax was an amazing son, brother, grandson, great grandson, nephew, cousin and friend. In his short life, he touched all he met with his sense of humor and kindness. Dax was very active and had an incredible zest for life. He enjoyed camping, shooting guns, golfing, and gaming but his passion was basketball. Dax and his freshman basketball team were able to play and win their first game before his passing. Dax had a strong faith in God and a firm understanding that he would return to live with him. Dax attended Alpine Church and served the toddlers of his church family through Kid's Ministry. Dax was also very involved in Fusion, a youth group sponsored by Alpine Church, and through them participated in meaningful service and worship.

Daxton is survived by his parents Justin and Jenn Olsen; brother Jace Olsen; sister Jill Reimer, grandparents Dave and Marie Miller; Ray and Shelley Olsen; Paul Platis and Pauline Jonsson; Kathy Platis.

A tribute to Dax's life will be held on Thursday, December 13th. The tribute will begin promptly at 3:30 pm in the Logan High School Auditorium, 162 W 100 S, Logan. Those who wish to share memories and express condolences are welcome to join the family at 5:00 pm for a gathering hosted at Alpine Church, 395 S Main St., Logan.

“ Sophia loves Daxton fiercely. Our hearts break for you. I remember when I met Dax... Sophia was hanging out at his house for a bit while her dad and I ran some errands and when we went to pick her up I could see both of them spying on us through the blinds! I texted her; I can see you both and Sophia said; Dax is trying to see if you look nice because he wants to meet you 😊 I passed the blinds test and met him for the first time! Adored him.

“ The world has lost a great leader and a loyal friend. Dax was a bright, principled young man who cared deeply about others. I enjoyed working with Dax at MLMS and will forever remember the great example of honesty and integrity he was. I'm absolutely devastated for your family. May God bless you in his time of loss.

“ I was so sad to hear of your loss. Dax was a wonderful student to have in class at Woodruff. He was energetic, funny and loved by all the other students. My heart is with all of you.
