“ I will greatly miss my Friday sit-downs with Mrs. Fannesbeck. I delivered Meals on Wheels to her every Friday for about 3 or 4 years. She was such a pleasure to visit with, we often talked of her family and watched The Price is Right. Her dog, Dobbie, was such a loving companion to her. She would crawl up on her lap or on her shoulders and snuggle. She said I was one of the few people who Dobbie would let pet her, I will miss them both. I visited her in the nursing home after she fell, and she seemed at peace and told me she thought it was her time to go. That was really hard to hear, but I sensed that she was OK with it. I learned a lot from her. My deepest sympathy to the family.
